

Dubblestandart & Marcia Griffiths
Holding You Close (part 1)

CCT digital/7 tracks – minutes playtime

Dubblestandart are some of the most acclaimed, incendiary „modern“ Dub sounding acts on planet earth. Their vision being the “dub stadium act” for the next century with the likes of KLF is more and more coming through. Its Dubblestandart’s vibrant sound clash of industrialized Dub power with the spirit of OnU/Sherwood and Black Ark/Lee Perry and their feeling for pop flavored epic melodies with a cosmic vibe: Today they are considered as an outstanding and stunning act in the recent reggae history.

Since 1988 the group is a phenomenal measurement and their collaborating artists list as “who is who” in the cream of hot spots: Anthony B., Elephant Man, William S. Burroughs, David Lynch, Lee “Scratch” Perry, Ari Up, Dillinger, Ken Boothe, Mikey Dread, Sly & Robbie, Mad Professor, a.o.

Their new creation of beauty along with the queen of Lovers Rock „Marcia Griffiths“ makes the summer become supersonic! The dreamy lovely lyrics sung with the sweetest voice of the former member of the legendary Bob Marley „I Trees“ melts perfectly with Dubblestandart’s 21st century urban roots beats.

A quality control track as a further proof that Dubblestandart’s productions are getting stronger with every release. What you’ll get are 2 original versions plus remixes by French top producer „Grant Phabao“ (remixes for Erykah Badu, The Herbaliser, Jurassic 5, Tosca), „Keith Le Blanc“ (producer for Nine Inch Nails and original drummer of the Sugarhill Gang), „Litte -Skip MCDonald – Axe“ (legendary dub producer) and Moshi Kamashi from Kingdub in France. Enjoy a great summer 2012!!
